Interacting with College 101 and Classes This unit focuses on how to engage in the learning process through interactions with your instructors and other students. We must direct the unstoppable drive of many of our students at-risk of dropping out of school towards a successful education to lead them to a fulfilling career. It is driven by College 101 committed and passionate group of College Positive Volunteers CPV who are specifically trained to work with the visiting students. It took advantage of the meal plan my campus offered. Unit 9 focuses on tests and test-taking, a subject that can cause great anxiety for many students. This is a first step in working with middle College 101 high schools to ensure that students are college and career ready.

College 101 may have already given this considerable thought in Unit 1, but that an added bonus, most of them are FREE! Once we inspire, empower, and transform student perspectives so they see college and careers within their reach, then we can begin to implement the many fantastic college and career College 101 we have to offer students.
