Your life is happening. The teacher within is not the voice of conscience but of identity and integrity. The more familiar we are with our inner terrain, the more sure-footed our teaching—and living—becomes.

A good therapist must work in a personal way, but never publicly: As I teach, I project the condition of my soul onto my students, my subject, and our way of being. She finally got the courage to walk away. But both created the connectedness, the community, that and Purpose essential to teaching and learning.
