Everyone hearing the words of Christ receives his blessings. Turner is not otherwise known to have crossed the Channel or North Sea within sight of the Belgian or Dutch coast between and The dark, briny depths and the dangerous, turbulent surface on which the fisherman work their livelihood are only lightly suggested in conventional seaside views. That must have kindled his earliest interest in the sea and coastal scenery. This painting seems at first sight to be an unlikely candidate for inclusion in a discussion of the sublime, Darnell shows us how the painting, in interacting with its original context of display, exercised a specific agency that could be labeled moral elevation. A tradition of the pictorial sublime What I was doing conformed, as the critic Jonathan Jones has noted, 6 to a pattern of artistic behaviour that is over two centuries old.
