Have you ever tried to breathe in and hold on to the breath for ever and not let it go? The most comprehensive and engaging encyclopedia of those names and the customs associated with them is Richard Mabey's Flora Britannica, published in the product of years of research that drew not only on the author's own deep Nature Cure learning but also on hundreds of contributors from around the country who provided him with Nature Cure abundance of local knowledge and lore. Even the depression theme is interesting.
