A most handsome example of this uncommon item. One of the first Chinese artists to achieve international recognition during his lifetime, his prolific output is estimated to number over ten thousand individual works.

The vehicle through which an artist communicates is ultimately the brushwork.

The nude has also been used to make a powerful social or political statement. Some are made in the literati style, meaning that they tend to use expressionistic brushwork and were painted as an expression of personal creativity. Thames and Hudson,
