They begin to be suspicious of each other and both keep secrets - will they end up in the same situation as Dan and Sasha? I absolutely have to know what the author would have in store for our characters next!

This was definitely not girly, happy or even sickly romantic. Dan drops a bombshell that puts tension between the couples, not only between each other but in their own homes. Not only is the friendship between the four of them suddenly hanging in the air, but Hannah and Dan's own relationship. The Broken is a story with dark Fallout (A Psychological Thriller) chilling moments, and it will have you gripped to the pages...a real wow book.

How did it classify as a psychological thriller? Highly recommended 5 stars. let me make things clear, I was expecting a bit more of a thriller than I was given. Even though the author has quite a few books published I thought this was a great introduction to her work and I look forward to reading .
