Amazon Rapids Fun stories for kids on the go. I agree with Ashely on one thing- if the state had given her Three Little Words mother an ounce of help- so much might have been avoided. As soon as their mom got out of jail This is one of those books that makes you wish you had the power to change the world in an instant.

And expecting a child to kneel down in gratitude just because he or she is adopted. There are not enough people in this world fighting for the the children who have no voice in this world and Ashley is certainly a hero in my book. Rhodes-Courter tells her story in a direct way, using a "show me, don't tell me" approach. Whether these adults are legally or biologically responsible, many are giving
