Open Preview See a Problem? It's as though they all believed that love is something that just happens to you when you find the right person, and not something that two people work on. In this email is a confirmation link. I may have to buy it, so I can read it. The funny from the first essay, written by Carrie Fisher, you will laugh at some women's unbelievably awful choices and then you will groan when you recognize yourself and the total losers you yourself actually dated. I especially enjoyed the essay written by the author who dated a male porn star.
