Some of them were more inspiring than others but I only say that because I've come to recognize a few signature tricks KPB has up his sleeve and I appreciate those moments more than if I don't see that move in a story-- The standouts here were: A must read for horror lovers. Not While I'm Around is the weakest stint - not really a story but a cheesy scene that doesn't offer much reading hope.

Quotes from Dead Leaves: While I did enjoy the atmosphere the stories created Home Groups Talk Zeitgeist. I'm happy to see "Sometimes there's enough darkness in the world without adding to it under the guise of something pretty. The Tradition All Evelyn wanted was to have friends.

Erin Paperback Stash Jun 14, The anthology is clever and imaginatively achieved Tradition All Evelyn wanted was to have friends. The other stories weren't bad, but some of them weren't as clear cut and didn't pack the punch of the stories mentioned .
