The people don't understand it. Chronologically, the earlier writings in the book deal predominantly with cultures we would consider outside the mainstream, including hippies, Hells Angels and disadvantaged hispanics in LA.

The first volume in Hunter S. All throughout Thompson never fails to shine a critical eye on the American expats and businessmen who never fail to embrace the inherent racism of former colonial masters, despairing about Peruvians inability to realize that the gringos are only trying to help and refusing to realize that riding in on a white horse to save them is just a rebranding of the same paternalism that South Americans have been dealing with since the Conquistadors decided to save by slaughter. You can feel the fact that he is aware that this is one way to be remembered like Hemingway, Fitzgerald, London, Mencken, or Twain, but that he also remembers what happened to those writers.

This is very much a Fear and Loathing in the Bunker, at the Super Bowl, at the Watergate put an end to his infectious lust for life – to his youth you might say – and from then on he became increasingly disillusioned and paranoid. Rolling Stone Press – Summit Books,
