It is possible to know personally the God who has revealed to us the glorious fact that Mary as Theotokos is both the mystery of God limiting His own omnipotence as well as the miracle of a human being able to contain divinity. The book explained to me how to turn my inner conversation I was having with myself into a conversation with God.

The next thing to do as we become aware of the presence of God is to be alert to the presence of His Spirit, in the lives of those who have been made right with God through the work of Jesus Christ on the cross. And yet Eve, and Adam chose to banish God from their thinking.
