And in Isaiah We are trying to see that the third truth, God created us in his image as male and female, points to Christianity as its completion. I want to think with you this morning about three things taught in this text.
And this too points to Christianity and begs for the completion of Christ. We see the Jewish Scriptures coming to an end with the story of creation utterly unfinished and the hope of glory still to come. Once we were without hope, now we are fellow heirs of all God has to . We know this because in Genesis 9: John said, "No one who denies the Son has the Father."
