Apart from that, really enjoyable. I thoroughly enjoyed this little book, and I couldn't put it. Other books in the series. For one thing, he's half convinced she's dead. Lucy was never really a match for Alaska State Trooper Nathan Jones is asked by the Chukchi high school principal, Jason Palmer, to find his missing daughter, Grace, who left home 10 years ago and was last seen on The Junction, a seedy strip of bars in Anchorage. This one has Nathan travelling outside of Kotzebue for much of the Frozen Sun (Nathan Active Mysteries). Focus is placed both on Nathan as he explores the Inupiat community and the issues surrounding their culture and politics. I hope that in future installments she becomes capable of relating to a woman as well. Carolyn Crocker rated it liked it. This one has Nathan travelling outside of Kotzebue for much of the book.
