The floor beneath her feet seemed to pitch back and forth like the deck of a ship. Beautiful in her own right, true. Had the circumstances been different, Caressa would have been more than happy. Caressa was a gentle, kind woman. Some were too young, meant for the girls who had only now been presented at court. Caressa gasped and loosened the corset strings so that her friend could breathe. Kirkland looked to the chair in which Caressa sat. Noticing her trunks and several of her larger possessions around the room, Caressa was confused but Courting Caressa her seduction of her husband could easily begin .
