As a pharmacist in recovery, I could relate to many aspects of Jared's story, including being arrested on the job for the same thing Jared was arrested. The story was interesting and flowed. It could be your doctor, lawyer, postal worker, or the little old lady that lives next door.

The persons sitting next to you in church could be an addict. Close Report are vi
A pleasant style and well paced narrative reveals a pharmacist's nightmare with pills and alcohol. Julie Gellendin rated it really liked it Jul 20, Open Preview See a Problem? My Personal Stop Message.
