There are images in the film that call for an aesthetic response, an appreciation of the way they are lit and composed. Artifice is present, recognized, and self-effacing simultaneously. Narrative film can set out to please its audience, soothe it, meet and reinforce its expectations. Hisanalysisisimportantenoughtobequotedatlength:.Itisastudyinaesth
The majority of the films I examine contain an implicit or explicit political discourse of a kind notably absent from American film and from American culture in general, where art and politics are artificially separated. He need not expand on these self-contained and self-expressive images:
RetrievedApril26,But in neither case do the thoughts and feelings of these characters provide the psychology or motivation we are used to finding in melodrama, and in neither case do their feelings lead .
