In this case, the heroine is married. Roland and Lilibet's relationship. However, I couldn't even finish this one. I'll tell you why romance authors should refrain from including kids in their books: Moreover, the plot felt somewhat choppy I believe this is the most disappointing of the series. There are twists and turns to their story that were unexpected and kept me reading far into the night.

Once again Grayful fills my requirements for historical romances. I loved Roland, Lilibet seemed a little flat compared to his character. Lilibet and Penhallow was a couple that didn't get to happen.
