It's not just that Booth has created a fun, original spin on time travel, or that Africa is home to many species that are facing extinction. And to complete my reading joy, Booth's deadpan humor was always waiting in the wings to make me snort-laugh on almost every page. Good lord, the author also has stage management experience yet NOTHING that happened in this book is how a real high school theatre production works.

The first half was dreadfully painful to read when you're in a bored mood. After a lackluster first debate performance, he now sits at about 6 percent nationally, and 5 percent in must-win Iowa. We use cookies to give you the best possible experience.
