Published on March 19, When you find a book that your child is totally enthralled in you know you have a good one. In fact, I think the adult reading it to them will enjoy the story and learn something from it as . ReviewCopyprovidedbyThomasNelson It helps to realise that we will often not know what our influence on others will be and how God will use it to change things in the long run. Norman studied and succeeded, but was Norman the only one responsible for this success? I highly recommend it.

ThebookisbeautifullyillustratedbyPhilipHurst,andwouldmakealoveleyc there was something Norman didn't like and that was knowing that someone didn't have enough to eat. Through these two books, Andy Andrews is encouraging children and adults alike to believe that what they do has an impact, and to make good use of their talents and influence, because we all have the power to change the world.
