The Bullies offers a unique and illustrated perspective on a widespread phenomenon, and will be essential reading for psychologists, sociologists, counsellors, teachers, social workers, probation officers, students and researchers. They will tend to look to themselves for the blame rather than the bully.

Domination of one person by another doesn't have to be all physical in nature.
Chapter 6 Bullying in School. Registered Company Telephone:

And you could be forgiven for believing from what you see on the news that people

4 Who Bullies? The victim of this kind of aggressive domination may believe it's a just a sign of how much they are truly loved - the greater the demands, the more they must be loved.
