The gang's financial success ends with the repeal of Prohibition, when Max suggests setting up what was to become the Teamsters' union which Noodles refuses and leaves. One show writer says the characters were inspired by his own relationship. Opening the locker, he discovers a suitcase full of cash, like the one kept there and taken away, now with a note saying the money is a down payment on his next job.

Retrieved on June 5, He then laughs at Hiroichi's propositions and translates them as bribing him, who is in the way of Japanese control over Shanghai, so that he can betray his own country.
