This is a really special book, very cleverly put together, and I'm happy to have found a new favourite author. The second one I liked a lot was The Perfect Family, about fourteen year old Blythe, an only child, who goes on holiday with the big, noisy family she envies, only to discover that being part of such a group is not all she'd thought it was ThisiswhattheSWEFOTtriallistsfoundwhentheylookedbackatthepatients each of the stories there is some resolution - no loose ends - so we are not left hanging wondering what might have happened.
