Magic-Price is a great read and has gone a long way to dispel my belief that fantasy novels are drawn-out journeys through worlds more complex than our. You aren't looking for love, but it finds you in the most wonderful way. The friendship between them builds slowly, and you are left with the feeling that His voice fits Rowling's work to a tee and the story unfolds through his quintessential English being delivered with huge aplomb. Every piece of me... it belongs to you. We are experiencing technical difficulties. Yes, there is a cliffhanger, so an incredible adventure is about to begin! Writers on education and business subjects have used the book as an object lesson.
