It is not bad thought, I do not mean that – though that may happen sometimes – but they are swept into a sort of whirlpool of comparatively worldly thought. When On the light path find psychics who show great pride, On the light path think we may generally take it for granted that they are not as yet trained people, that though they are developing the higher faculties they have not yet come into contact with the Master, because the absence of pride is a sure sign of one who is learning his lesson properly. We looked into the question of the amount of suffering which was inflicted on different people by the ignominies of prison life; to some persons they meant practically nothing, to others the most intense mental and emotional suffering.

In each case we will take the rule and then the comment that the Chohangave in ex They want to kill out a certain evil quality, so they set themselves very strongly, angrily almost, against that quality. Then he must cast aside the lower in order to have the higher; but later on the attraction of the lower will have disappeared entirely.
