In many places, at least from the point of view of animals and plants, we humans are akin to an invasive species that takes over and threatens every other life form. We humans are called not just to thank God for creation but to praise god with creation. An excellent resource for clergy and church leaders.

congressional testimony, and journal entries, Williams reflects on the God-given value of wilderness and the need to preserve wild places - for their own sake and the sake of the human spirit. Let us hear the biblical call from God and make a profound commitment to fulfill our human vocation to be Earth-keepers who serve and preserve the Earth.
Human beings were recreated so that they could take care of the garden Earth that and different readings of biblical texts are one consequence of a growing awareness of the environmental crisis and how it relates to social relations, especially in urban settings.
