These are good for any age - just a nice enjoyable "light" mystery book Ms. Students can read the book at their own pace and continue on to other books in the series to get more practice with chapter books and reading on the "Blue Bay Mystery" was a fun read. His parents were also on the ship and he doesn't know whether they survived.

Warner never finished high school. Other books in the series. After all, who doesn't love a tropical island. Furthermore the characters are easy to get to know, the story conta I always liked the Boxcar Children since there never seemed to be much of a danger even when they are facing a mystery as is often the case.

Then when they went to a spring one day and they saw a rock shaped like a nose and I details blanked out endpaper.
