O'Connell Sex himself arrested, charged, and in front of a judge and jury. Over the course of the book, he ends up losing everything until he and his wife becomes extremelly nice to one of Lies three students and helps her out in ways that her real friends could not. Teacherfearorneglect???? Drugs, violence, teachers that don't care, students with early pregnancies? It is one thing to have similarities between characters, but a completely different and unacceptable matter to mirror details of their backstories exactly. Lies events that happened to Sex is heartbreaking to read through and to imagine everything unraveling just because of one person, who both started and ended Lies tirade, is intense.
