He is from the Philippines and after 13 years working on ships, Dante hopes to be a permanent member of the Falkor family. Sergiusz, at 23, is the youngest member of the crew. No matter how fast the world changes, a career at sea will stand you in excellent stead. Speak to one of our lively and inspirational ambassadors at your school or youth group by requesting a visit. She earned a degree and spent 10 years working as a computer engineer; however, adventure still called. While the world is considered a small place – we even call it the global village, there are many different types of people which seafarers meet at sea. He is truly living the dream. Not all of us are so fortunate. Arkadiusz chose an education in culinary arts not because he loved to cook, but it was the best option near his home. There is a lot to being a seafarer, the challenges are immense – it is tough, lonely, arduous and demanding.
