There is a certain honesty and integrity here, just like there was around my old friends. McCarthy is not an easy writer to recommend, as I recognise that some readers will not tolerate his style and authorial idiosyncrasies, let alone his particularly American subject matter and themes. Amelia Faith is a 17 year old teenage author who has had a love of writing and reading since she was seven.

Initially, Ainslie doesn't understand the strong attraction that she feels. The tale is a great romp of the imagination with an insight into some physics.
