Pandora's Curse (Philip Mercer #4) by Jack Du Brul

During World War II, in a secret Nazi submarine base, boxes made from looted wartime gold were hidden away. These "Pandora's boxes" contained an artifact.

a touch of romance, Du Brul's action-packed contemporary adventure zips along like an out-of-control locomotive as geologist Philip Mercer, the James Bond-

I enjoy reading about different regions in the world. I found this book to be an excellent story, just the right combination of fact, history, plausibility and fiction. In the unforgiving wastes of Greenland, geologist Philip Mercer uncovers a Vulcan's Forge. Philip Mercer Book 1. Would the idea of a touch of Jack Higgins intrigue you? Back to War Corps Justice Book 1. Kind of fun, realistic and extreme at parts, but had me on the edge of my seat when it was never sure how the Convocation fit in.
