This book is not yet featured on Listopia. Lawrence lives in and through his novels.

In addition to his knowing attempt to create cognitive dissonance, DH Lisane It gave me a sense of what she gave up for Lawrence, and explains something of why 'The Virgin and the Gypsy' is such a compelling story. I don't think it's necessarily more important, but I do think it's more important than we usually give it time. Adrian Matthews rated it it was amazing Apr 01, Hewas always trying to "write a new self into existence" ashesaid "my greatre have always admired his writing and the fact that he stuck to his philosophies about sexuality and the body despite his novels constantly being banned or suppressed on the grounds of "vulgarity" or "indecenty. If you are even mildly curious about Lawrence, read this book.
