This book would be a great choice for a read-aloud time. Jan 06, Sara rated it it was amazing.

The inclusion of a map in the middle of the story is one of the highlights as are the illustrations. He's dressed in clothes. A unique retelling of the "Hey Diddle Diddle" nursery rhyme is certain to delight young children, parents, and storytellers. I would recommend this early readers book as long as it's being read to or if the child has read other nursery rhymes prior.

Children may not get the humor in the book if they haven't been exposed to the rhyme. The way in which the adventure progressed lent itself to some good academic content. I haven't read many nursery rhyme books to our girls in recent years as they are starting to grow out of them, but we were fascinated by this story. May Copyright Cahners Business Information.
