All her class mates know me and feel confident to chat to me. Throwing child-like tantrums over the fact that she was the only one oblivious about his feelings everyone was so aware of it as if it was written in bold letters: The minor characters of the story may be more appealing to readers than the main characters; although Parker deals with relatable issues, her character lacks the nuance that would make her more compelling and realistic. She takes the threat to her settlement. But let's not get ahead of. The story was written beautifully and I cried a lot. You give in to your doubts. Todd wakes up under a care of a doctor in another settlement. Ruby and Parker both deep with some forms of anxiety, and I was just really amazed by their mental and emotional strength.
